

An architectural rendering of a modern, four-story residential building named 'PLAYA Residences'. The building features a light gray, textured facade with a grid-like structure of rectangular windows and balconies. Each balcony is adorned with lush green plants, some of which are trailing over the edges. The building is set against a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds. In the foreground, there is a low concrete wall and some greenery. To the left, a silver car is partially visible. To the right, another building with a red roof and solar panels can be seen in the background.
